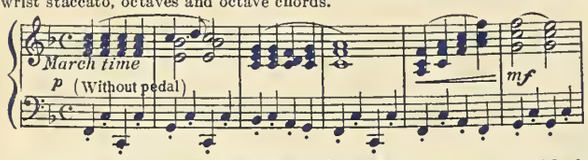
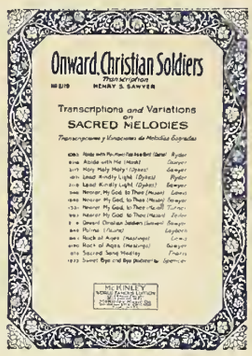
New Transcriptions and Variations on Sacred Melodies

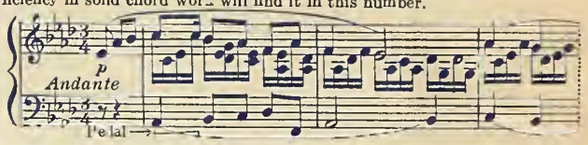
Brilliant, Attractive, Yet Easy to Play

2119 Onward, Christian Soldiers. March. Transcription. Grades 3 and 4. Sullivan. Most popular march melody ever written. Fine for finger control, wrist staccato, octaves and octave chords.

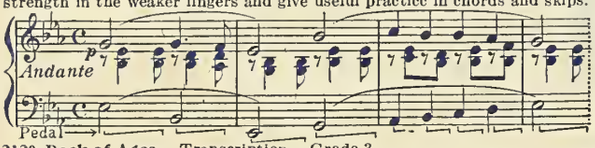




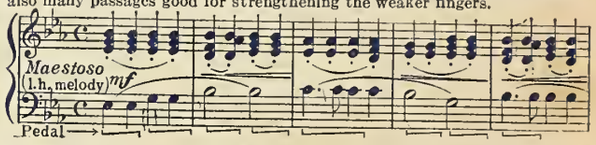
2118 Lead, Kindly Light. Transcription. Grade 4. Dykes
Players looking for something to display a refined legato touch and a proficiency in solid chord work will find it in this number.



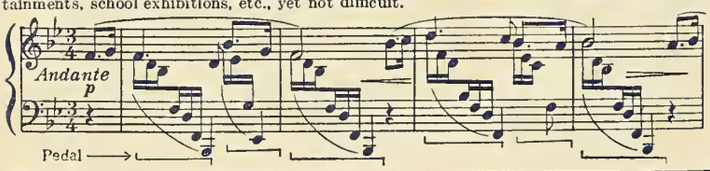
2116 Abide with Me. Transcription. Grade 3. Monk
A favorite hymn melody for over 60 years, transcribed so as to develop strength in the weaker fingers and give useful practice in chords and skips.



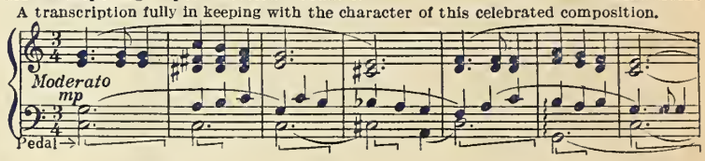
2117 Holy, Holy, Holy! Transcription. Grade 3 Dykes
Full of varied, brilliant effects, yet not difficult. Has a fine left hand melody, also many passages good for strengthening the weaker fingers.



2120 Rock of Ages. Transcription. Grade 3. Hastings
Though nearly 100 years old, this melody still retains its charm. Well adapted for entertainments, school exhibitions, etc., yet not difficult.

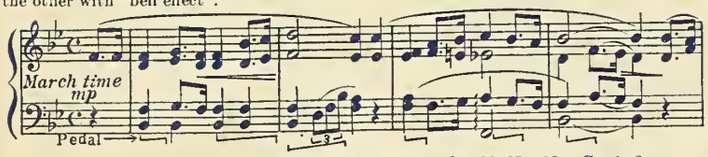


2126 Whispering Hope. Reverie. Grade 3. Hawthorne
A transcription fully in keeping with the character of this celebrated composition.

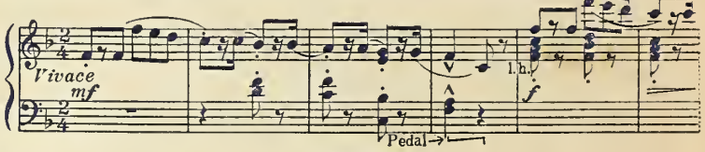


Latest Music of Easy and Medium Grade

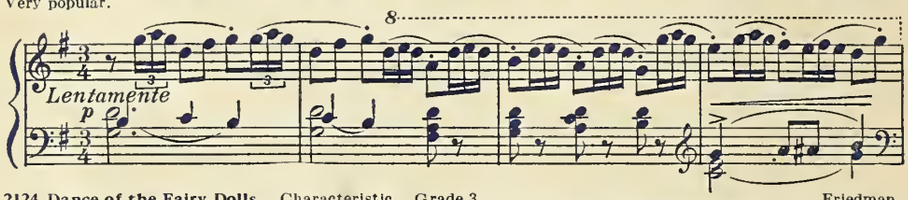
2090 Little Brown Church in the Vale. Transcription. Grade 3. Pitts
Be ins in something like quartet style; two variations follow, one with crossing of hands, the other with "bell effect".



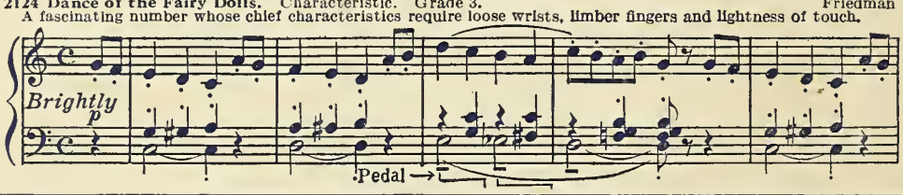
2122 Curious tory. Op. 138, No. 9. Grade 2. Heller
Very popular as an example of delicate staccato effects and lightness of touch.



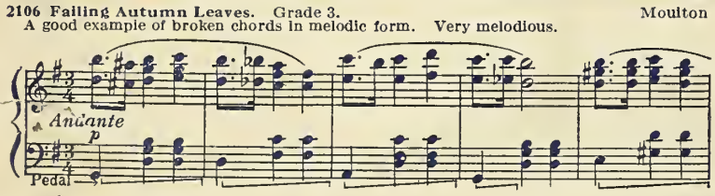
2097 Lark's Song. Op. 39, No. 22. Grade 3. Tschaikowsky
A melody written mostly on the upper leger lines, and filled with rapid triplet, staccato and grace note forms. Very popular.



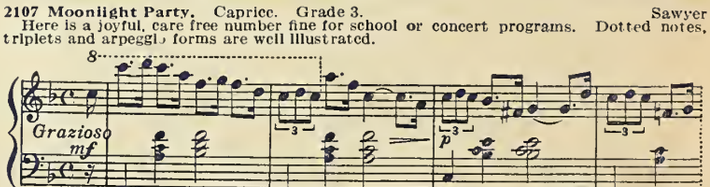
2124 Dance of the Fairy Dolls. Characteristic. Grade 3. Friedman
A fascinating number whose chief characteristics require loose wrists, limber fingers and lightness of touch.



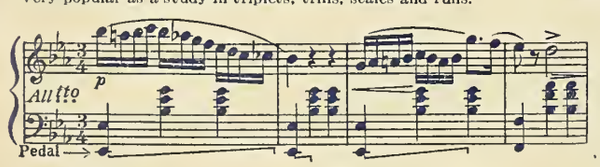
2106 Failing Autumn Leaves. Grade 3. Moulton
A good example of broken chords in melodic form. Very melodious.



2107 Moonlight Party. Caprice. Grade 3. Sawyer
Here is a joyful, care free number fine for school or concert programs. Dotted notes, triplets and arpeggio forms are well illustrated.



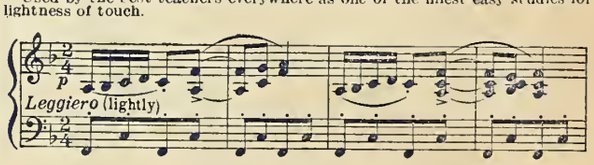
2123 Silver Nymph Mazurka. Op. 164. Grade 3. Heins
Very popular as a study in triplets, trills, scales and runs.



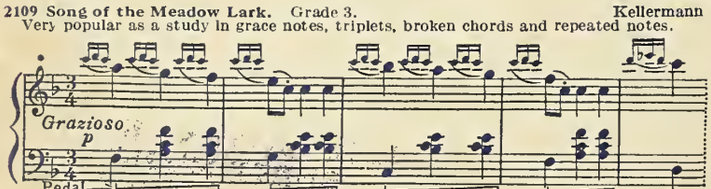
What Shall I Give My Pupil to Develop Musical Proficiency?

You will find what you want in the World-Famous McKinley Edition of standard teaching music, classified according to piano technique.

427 Spinning Song. Op. 14, No. 4. Grade 2. Ellmenreich
Used by the best teachers everywhere as one of the finest easy studies for lightness of touch.



2109 Song of the Meadow Lark. Grade 3. Kellermann
Very popular as a study in grace notes, triplets, broken chords and repeated notes.



2110 Sunrise on the Lake. Grade 3. Powell
A pleasing number for any occasion, and useful as a study in broken chords and grace notes.
